This may sound strange, but in this climate a buggy must be painted with the very best materials and in a scientific manner; otherwise, in a very short time, bolt-heads will show on the body.

Our jobs are thoroughly painted, not dipped, as the finish will show, and you will make no mistake in buying STUDEBAKER OR TEBBETTS BUGGIES.

BESS M'CLANE TO RECITE HERE.

Roswell Girl Who Has Won Fame in the East to Entertain Home People Under Auspices of Woman's Club.

The people of Roswell are to have an opportunity to hear Bess May McClane, the delightful reader who has won fame in her particular line of art in the Central States. On the night of August 2 she will read under the auspices of the Woman's Club, which is to receive a large per cent of the proceeds for its work of education and advancement. The place of the recital has not been selected.

Bess May McClane is the daughter of Dr. C. T. McClane of this city and is a Roswell girl. For two years she has been making her home in Chicago, where her headquarters are with the Ridpath Lyceum Bureau, under whose direction she has been giving readings all over the Middle States. For five years preceding her removal to Chicago, she made her home in Roswell and spent her winters in study in Chicago. In that time she has won the name of being one of the best elocutionary entertainers in the big city of the Great Lakes.

For her Roswell program Miss McClane has selected her original cutting of "The Man of the Box," a story of originality and interest. She has given this only before a number of Men's clubs in Chicago, where it was received with marked favor, and Roswell will be getting something strictly new and up-to-date when it hears its own daughter on this particular night.

Miss McClane is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McClane at their home at the corner of Fourth street and Richardson avenue, and is resting up for her winter's work on the eastern stage.

Speech.

Talk happiness. The world is sad enough Without your woes. No path is wholly rough.

Look for the places that are smooth and clear.

And talk of them to rest the weary ear

Of earth, so hurt by on's continuous strain

Of human discontent and grief and pain.

Talk faith. the world is better off without

Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.

If you have faith in God, or man, or self,

Say so—if not, push back upon the shelf

Of silence all your thoughts till faith shall come.

No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

Talk health. The dreary never-ending tale

Of mortal maladies is worn and stale.

You cannot charm, or interest, or please,

By harping on that minor chord, disease.

Say you are well, or all is well with you,

And God shall hear your words and make them true.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Mrs. Maud Coe, of Glencoe, Lincoln county, was here today visiting her father, Judge J. T. Evans, and went out this afternoon to the ranch of her mother.

Just received a fresh supply of Limburger and Brick Cheese at the U. S. Market. Tel. No. 31. 211f
